In 4 to 6 weeks, you will receive a letter to inform you if you are eligible for financial assistance for an approved service. If you receive an approval letter, it does not mean that all services at VUMC are approved or that future services will be approved for financial assistance. Please call VUMC Patient Billing Customer Service Team at 888-274-7849 to reapply. You can also email or mail in a new application. If you receive a letter informing you are not eligible for financial assistance and wish to appeal the decision, you can appeal the decision by emailing, mailing or faxing a completed VUMC Financial Assistance Appeal Application attaching proof of income.
